PRESS RELEASE

Saint Matthew's Cathedral Arts with Preservation Dallas present:
Historic Dallas through Photography

Dallas, May 5, 2016: Saint Matthew's Cathedral Arts has partnered with Preservation Dallas in presenting a photographic exhibition: Historic Dallas through Photography. A class of skilled photographers taught by professional photographer Carolyn Brown will showcase their work on documenting historically significant buildings, structures, and neighborhoods in Dallas in this exhibition.

The Historic Dallas through Photography Exhibition will be held in the Justus Sundermann Gallery of Saint Matthew's Cathedral Arts from Thursday, May 5 through Sunday, June 12. An opening reception and Gallery Talk will be held in the Justus Sundermann Gallery on Thursday, May 5, 6p-8p. Free admission and parking.

The Gallery Talk will be presented by special guest, Willis C. Winters, FAIA, FAAPRA. Mr. Winters is an architect, photographer, preservationist, scholar of architectural history, the author of several books, and Director of the City of Dallas Park and Recreation Department.

**Preservation Dallas, and its director, David Preziosi are dedicated to the preservation and revitalization of the city's historic buildings, neighborhoods, and places. Preservation Dallas is a nonprofit membership organization that champions initiatives to protect the history and culture of neighborhoods and historic buildings throughout the community, enhancing the quality of life and economic development of our great city.*
